

Archaeologist

A scientist who studies how people lived hundreds or thousands of years ago.

Detective

A person who uses clues and other information to solve a mystery.

Translate

To say words in a different language. For example, to say "hello" is the English word and "hola" is the same word in Spanish.

Hieroglyph

An ancient language that was written using small pictures and symbols. Hieroglyphics were used by people in Egypt.