

Graphic Designer

A person who is in charge of creating visual materials (like logos and advertisements).

Product Line

A group of products that are similar and sold by the same company.