Prototype

The first version of a product. It is usually a non-working, less expensive version of a final design.

Urban Planner

A person who designs cities and makes sure that the city has what it needs. Examples include police stations, transportation systems, schools, grocery stores, and parks.