

Name: _____

Writing Activity

Your friend, Bobby, thinks that it would be much easier to have no government at all. You want to explain to him why a government is important.

What would happen if there was no government?

Describe 2 responsibilities the government has.

Name: _____

Writing Activity

Your friend, Bobby, thinks that it would be much easier to have no government at all. You want to explain to him why a government is important.

Describe something that would happen if there was no government.

What are at least 2 responsibilities that government has?
