

Human Rights Activist

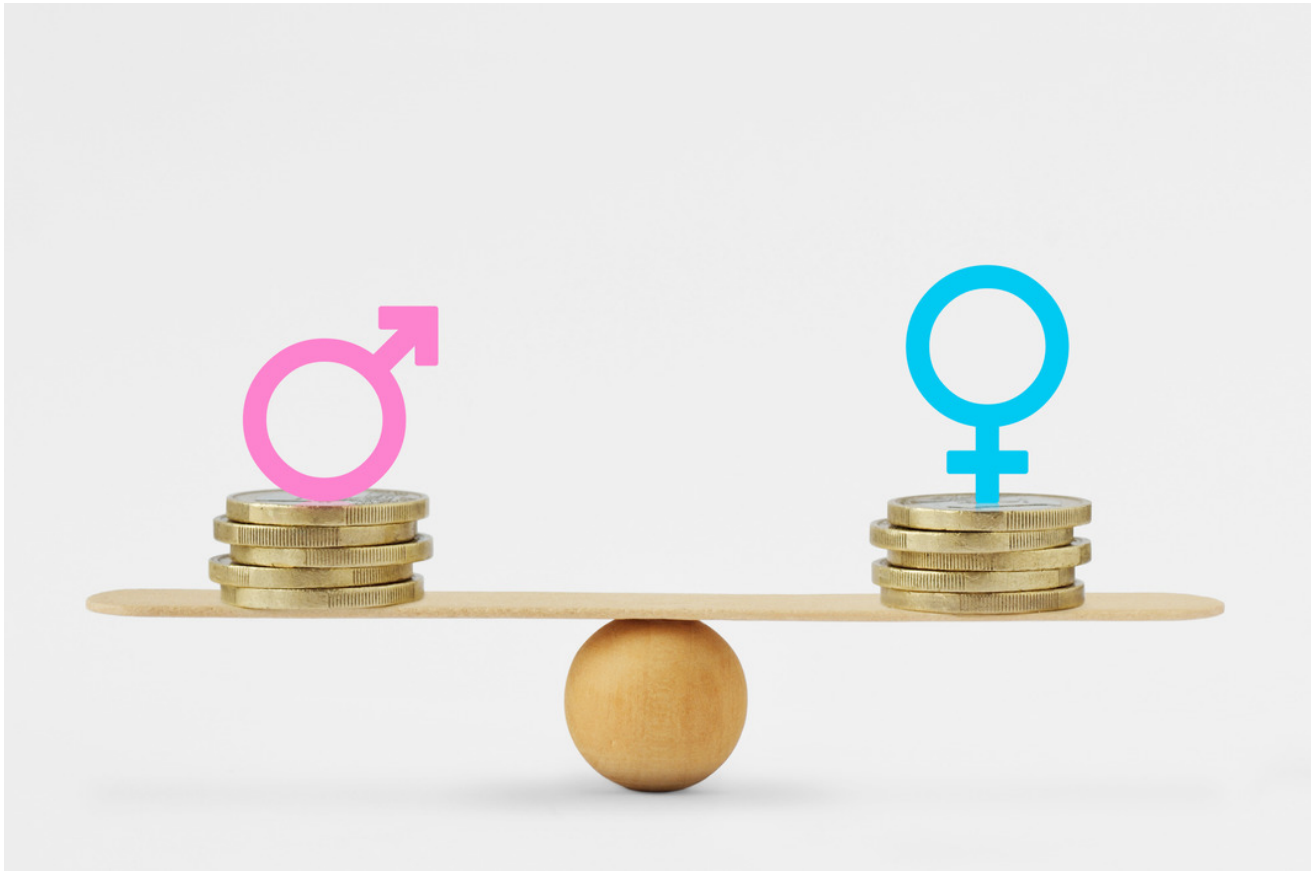

A person who is passionate about a topic. They raise people's awareness about issues at local, national, and international levels.

Title IX

A law that was part of the Educational Amendments. Title IX made it illegal for schools who receive money from the federal government to discriminate against students based on their gender.

Equal Pay Amendment

A law in the 1960s that made it illegal for men and women to be paid different salaries for the same job.

19th Amendment

A law in 1920 that gave women the right to vote in the United States.

Congress

A branch of the government that makes laws in the United States.