

Anthropologist

A person who studies people and cultures around the world of the past and present.

Artifact

An object, such as a tool or coin, that was made or used by people from the past

Primary Sources

A document, image, or artifact that were created or used in the time period being studied.

Culture

The characteristics and knowledge of a particular group of people, including passing language, religion, cuisine, social habits, music and arts.