

App Developer

Someone who creates apps or games that people can use on their phones and tablets.

Wireframe

A series of pictures and words that show what an app will look like.

Checks and Balances

Between all three branches of government, there is a balance of power. No one branch hold all the power. Checks and balances makes sure that laws have to be approved by the President and Congress in order to pass.