

Archivist

Someone who is in charge of gathering, collecting, organizing, and preserving records and archives that are extremely important to history.

Colonial America

The colonial era (from early 1600's to the American Revolution) of the United States. It began with European colonization of America and ended with the creation of the United States.

Constitutional Convention

A constitutional convention is a meeting with elected officials to write a new constitution or revising an existing constitution. This is where the US Constitution was created and signed.

Digital Archive

Similar to a physical archive, this is where a copy of historical documents are on file. If it is digital, the historical documents have been scanned or photographed and made available online.