1. Was the Catholic Church important during the Middle Ages and Renaissance? Why or why not?

Yes, most art work was created for the Catholic Church during this time period.

2. Give 1 way art was changing during the Middle Ages and the Renaissance.

Artists used more light and shadows; artists depicted people more realistically; artists started to depict things beyond just religion.

3. What can Medieval and Renaissance art tell us about that historical time period?

Religion was very important during this time; only wealthy people could afford art; the things people liked were changing, like the type of art they wanted to see.
