

Name: _____

Content Check

Read and answer the questions below.

1. Why did American colonists fight against the British in the Revolutionary War?

2. Give an example of a primary source from the Revolutionary War. Describe why it is a primary source.

3. Why is it important for FBI agents to find stolen artifacts from history?

Content Check

Teacher Key

1. Why did American colonists fight against the British in the Revolutionary War?

They decided they didn't want the King of England to be in charge of them any more.

2. Give an example of a primary source from the Revolutionary War. Describe why it is a primary source.

Musket balls, guns, and newspapers are all examples of primary sources from the war. These items are primary sources because they were used or created during the time of the event that took place.

3. Why is it important for FBI agents to find stolen artifacts from history?

Artifacts are important because they show us what people were thinking, saying, and feeling during the time we are learning about. They help us feel like we are in history!