1. Did people from different parts of Europe come to the Americas for similar or different reasons? Explain your reasoning.

People came for different reasons. Some people came to escape religious persecution. Other people were looking for a shorter trade route to get to Asia. Others explored for personal reasons, like becoming famous and discovering new land.

2. Why do filmmakers talk about primary and secondary sources in their films?

Primary and secondary sources provide evidence that can be used to back up claims.
