

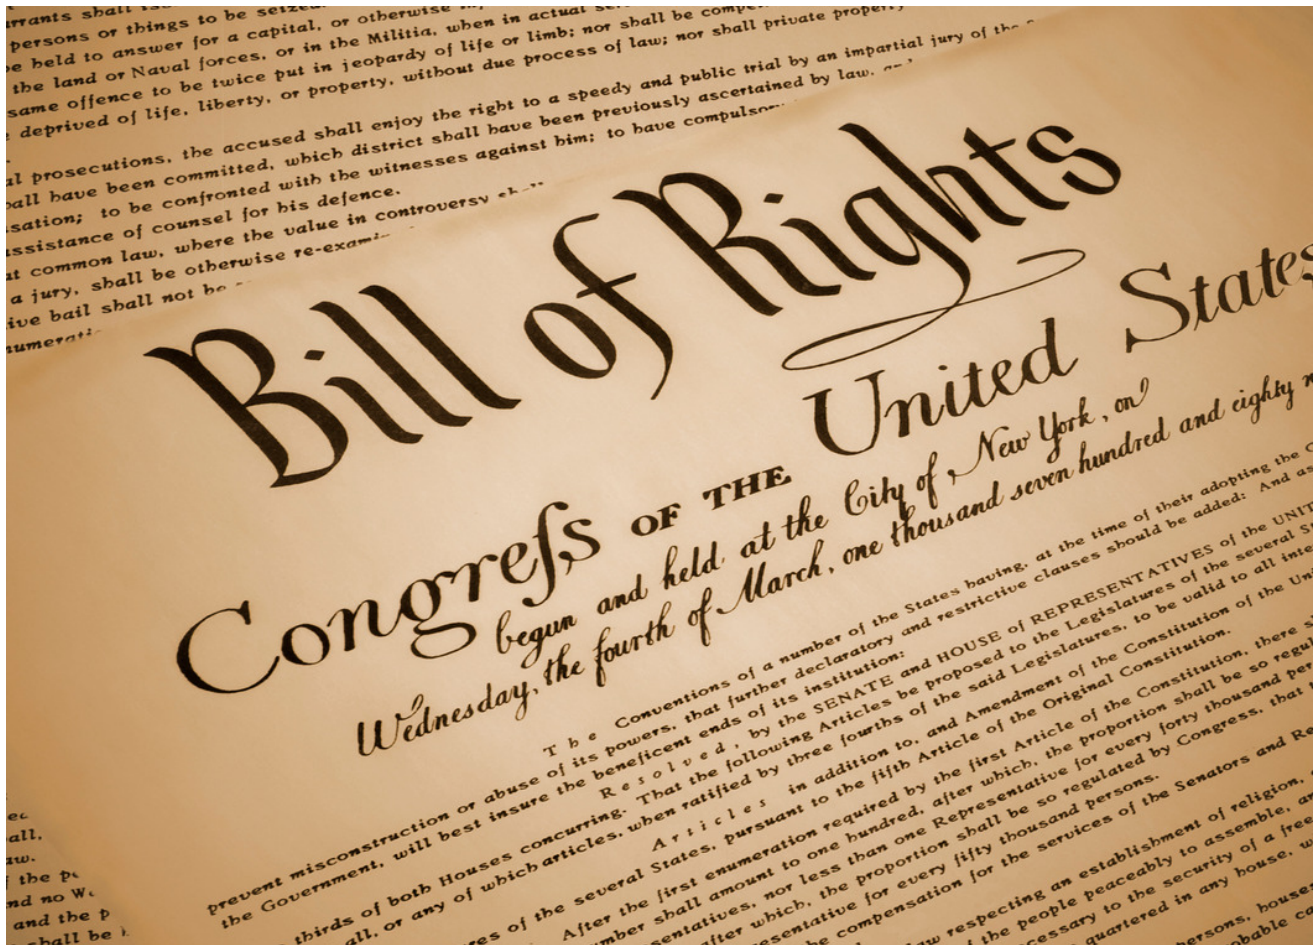

Graphic Designer

Someone who create images and words that you see on advertisements, t shirts, or magazines. He or she uses words and pictures to communicate ideas.

The Bill of Rights

The first ten rights that are listed in the U.S. Constitution.

Freedom of Speech

The government cannot punish people for what they say. For example, the President cannot punish someone for saying they do not like them!

Freedom of Religion

People in the U.S. have the freedom to practice any religion they choose or no religion at all, and go to a church, mosque, or temple to pray, or not pray at all.

People can also celebrate any holidays they want.