

Name: _____

Content Check

Read and answer the questions below.

1. Give three examples of what could be found within someone's culture.

2. How would we know if a place is multicultural?

3. What advantages might multiculturalism have?

4. What is one way to show you respect someone else's culture?

Content Check

Teacher Key

1. Give three examples of what could be found within someone's culture.

Parts of culture include food, music, holidays and celebrations, clothes, and language.

2. How would we know if a place is multicultural?

If a place has people who speak many languages, celebrate different holidays, or wear very different clothing, one can assume there is multiculturalism. Also, if people are living in the same place but are from different countries there is generally multiculturalism.

3. What advantages might multiculturalism have?

You can learn about other people's cultures, try new food, wear fun clothing, partake in fun activities.

4. What is one way to show you respect someone else's culture?

You can ask questions, be interested in learning, show you care, and be kind.