

Museum Curator

Someone who is is a manager or overseer of a gallery, museum, library, or archive.

World War I

This war was also known as the First World War or the Great War. It was fought all over the globe. It started in Europe in July of 1914 and lasted until November 1918.

Slogan

A motto used in advertising, usually a short and striking or memorable phrase. The goal of a slogan is to persuade a certain group of people or the general public.