

Parts of Culture

Religion

People from different places practice different religions. Some common religions are Christianity, Judaism, Islam, and Buddhism.

Clothing

People from different places wear different types of clothing. In some places, people might wear shirts and t-shirts. In other places, people might wear a sari, which is a long wrapped dress from India.

Language

People from different places speak different languages. These are all ways to say "Hello" in different languages.

Food

People from different places eat different food. Some people may eat a lot of meat, like beef and chicken. Other people may only eat vegetables and grains!

What Does Multiculturalism Look Like and Sound Like?

Sounds Like:

Kids' speaking different languages in their home, school, or neighborhood.

Kids' talking about the holidays they celebrate at home and the foods they eat.

Looks Like:

People's wearing different clothing.

People playing different instruments like drums, guitars, and trumpets.

My Culture

Step 1: Write or draw 3 different parts of your culture in the boxes below.