

Political Scientist

Someone who studies the origin, development, and operation of all political systems.

Lesson: Constitutional Convention

Constitutional Convention

A meeting with elected officials to write a new constitution or revising an existing constitution.

