

Spiders

All spiders have 2 main body parts: a head and an abdomen! Spiders also have 8 legs.

All spiders have a head, abdomen, and 8 legs, but lots of spiders have special traits that make them unique. Some spiders live in specific environments, like the rain forest or the desert!

This spider has venom, which is dangerous to animals and humans!

This spider has hair that makes it look bigger.

This spider lives in a tropical environment!

This spider lives in a desert environment!

My Spider Discovery

Appearance

Draw a picture of what your spider looks like. Then, write two sentences to describe what your spider looks like.

---

---

---

---

---

---

Discovering a New Spider

Habitat

Draw a picture of the habitat your spider lives in. Then, write two sentences to describe the habitat.

---

---

---

---

---

Discovering a New Spider

Food

Draw a picture of what your spider eats. Then, write two sentences to describe what your spider eats.

---

---

---

---

---

Discovering a New Spider

Defense

Draw a picture of how your spider defends itself from predators. Then, write two sentences to describe how your spider defends itself.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thick orange border, intended for drawing a picture of a spider's defense mechanism.Five thick, horizontal orange lines spaced evenly down the page, intended for writing two sentences describing the spider's defense.