

Lobbyist

A person who tries to get lawmakers to make changes in laws and policies. Lobbying can be a full time job, but anyone who voices their opinion to the government can be a lobbyist!

2nd Amendment

Says that people living in the U.S. have the right to arm themselves with guns, included in the Constitution so that people could protect themselves.

First Amendment

Protects freedom of speech, meaning that we have the right to speak our minds. According to the 1st Amendment, the government cannot stop people from speaking freely.