

Public Relations Director

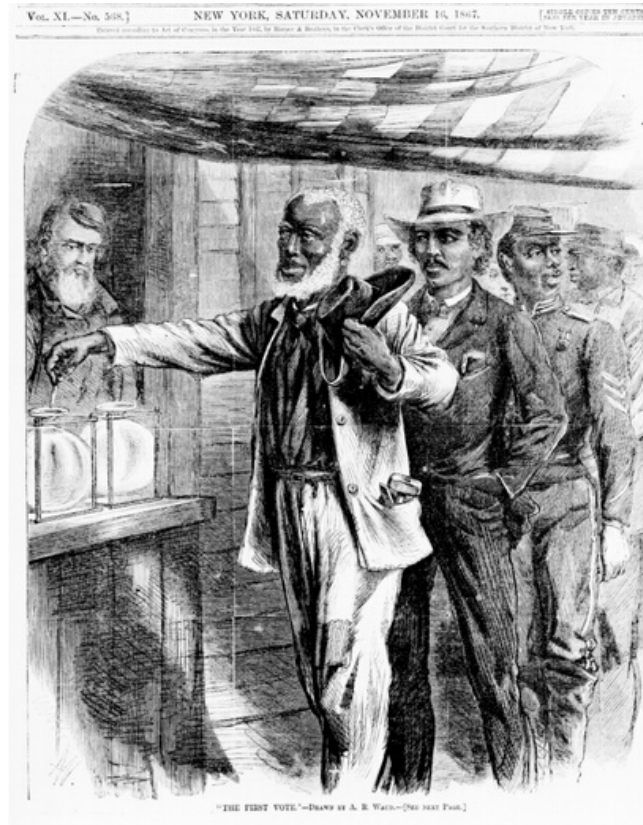

Someone who develops new ideas and strategies to attract business or call attention to a product, an organization, special event, or a business.

Reconstruction

The period after the Civil War ended.

15th Amendment

The law that granted African American men the right to vote.