

Secretary of Treasury

Someone who is responsible for managing all of the money that the United States government has.

Interest

An extra amount of money somebody has to pay on top of the money they have already borrowed.

Bond

A contract between two parties when one party needs to borrow large amounts of money.