

Oral Historian

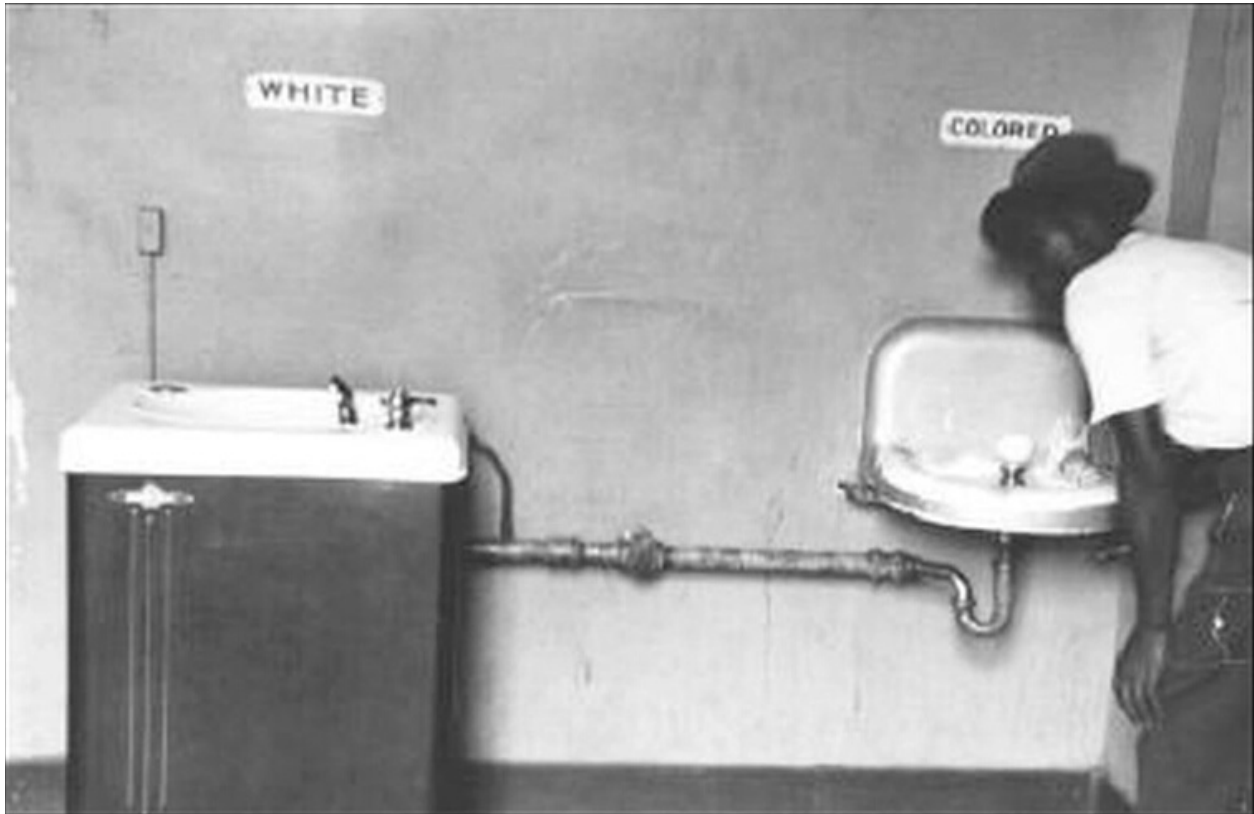

Someone who helps interpret and preserve the stories and speeches of people involved in past events.

Civil Rights

Rights that are guaranteed under the Constitution for all American citizens such as the right to vote.

Segregation

<https://cw33.com/2015/02/06/whites-only-water-fountain-shares-civil-rights-story/>

A practice that separates one group from another because of racial, religious or another difference.

Boycott

A protest tactic in which people refuse to buy or use a product or service in order to bring about change.