

How the Government Helps Communities- Answer Key

1. The government gives people a place to walk and play outside by building parks.
2. A newspaper reporter is a person who writes stories on different topics.
3. The government keeps people safe by building fire stations and police stations.
4. Newspaper reports ask for feedback on their articles so they can get other people's opinions on what they should change.